

STEPMANIA DX

StepManiaX is a dance arcade game that combines rhythm, energy and movement in an experience designed for playing, competing and staying active. Each game invites players to follow the music by stepping on the arrows in time, with smooth and highly accessible gameplay from the very first moment.

The gameplay system prioritises fun and physical activity, turning every song into an engaging fitness challenge that appeals to both casual players and experienced dancers. Its modern approach and carefully curated music selection keep motivation high and encourage repeat play.

It also supports simultaneous play, promoting competition and shared gameplay. A title that transforms dancing into a social, active and highly engaging experience within today's arcade environment.
